

years younger than I which made a difference when she was but a child & I just grown up.

Well, she spent a couple of days with me in January & I saw her again in New York about three weeks ago.

A day or two ago she sent me the enclosed document & I am also sending the note which came with it & which explains.

I don't have to tell you

Dear Tim —

Please don't get too tired with hearing from me — Always something happens —

I think I told you of a cousin who had arisen out of the past & brought a renewal of friendship, which had really been more on the part of our parents than our own; for she is several
